

GUARDIAN APRIL 20, 2011 P. A1

A crew from the Water and Sewerage Authority (WASA) conducts repair work to replace an air valve which was stolen by thieves on Monday. Theft of the valve left about 200,000 residents in central and south Trinidad without a water supply. The authority said close to three million gallons of water was lost because of the theft. SEE PAGE A6 PHOTO: COURTESY WASA